

AQUA POZO CASING SPECIAL

LEAD AND ZINC FREE PRODUCTION COMPOUND

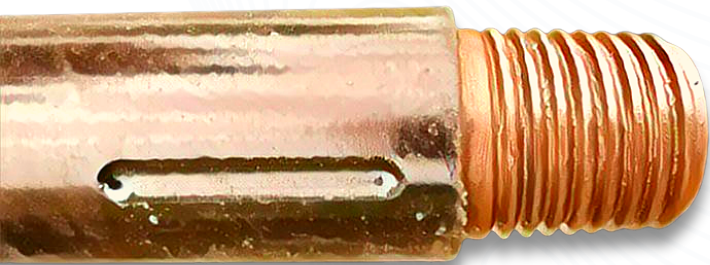

Aqua Pozo Casing Special is a lead and zinc free thread compound for casing, tubing, and line pipe. It exceeds industry standards as a premium compound for all threaded steel connections used for water well production. As a storage compound it provides superior performance over API Modified in a safe lead-free package. Aqua Pozo Casing Special is formulated with a proprietary blend of graphite, PTFE and premium copper flake to provide unmatched thread protection.
